ORAL JUDGEMENT

Mr.Manoj Srimali for Mr.Girish Patel states that this matter was listed for final hearing before the earlier bench (Coram; K.A.Puj,J) and at that time on behalf of respondent No.3-College Mr.J.J.Yagnik had appeared and stated before the court that pending the petition the petitioner was absorbed in Dwarka college and not only that but the petitioner has also reached the age of superannuation and retired from service. In that view of the matter it is established that this petition became infructuous. However, he states that he has intimated to his client but they have not been able to confirm this information. This matter is listed for four times. As the matter has become infructuous it is not necessary to adjourn the matter and therefore this petition is disposed of as having become infructuous liberty to apply in case of difficulty. Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
